

About Wombwell Homes

Welcome to Wombwell Homes, Cornwall's award winning property developer. We specialise in the renovation and redevelopment of brownfield sites throughout the west Country. We pride ourselves on sympathetic but strikingly attractive designs for our new homes, which aesthetically blend in alongside often listed or historic buildings. We have an impressive portfolio behind us including:-

Devington Hall, Truro

Glynn Mews, The former cinema in Lostwithel

The Old Town Hall, St Blazey

The former St Clements Vean Hospital, Truro

The former Retreat Hospital, St Columb

The former railway sidings at Lostwithiel, known as Brunel Quays

The former barracks in Bodmin, known as Victoria Parc and finally Jadeana Court in St Austell

Brunel Quays has been fortunate to win three awards;
Faculty of Building Devon and Cornwall Branch Winner 2005

'Best Building in Devon and Cornwall'

Cornish Buildings Group 2006 'Slate Award'

Restormel Borough Council Design, Conservation and Environmental 2006 'Design Award'

Brunel Quays was also cited in lectures by the Commission For Architecture and the Built Environment (CABE) as a prime example of how the new can blend with the old.

All of our developments are leasehold, enabling you to purchase a lifestyle from us, not just a home. With all our developments purchasers have the opportunity to choose from an extensive range of fixtures and fittings, which when combined with our architectural style creates a quality home, finished to a standard that is unrivalled.
